What is a Biblical Worldview

Col. 2:6-10

Every person eventually develops a worldview and that worldview determines how we see reality.

This morning, as we begin our series, we start with the topic of what is a Biblical worldview? Is a Biblical worldview the same as a Christian worldview? Is there room for compromise with a Biblical worldview? Is there a difference between a Biblical worldview and a moral worldview?

This morning, we'll examine four things that will help us see what a Biblical worldview is.

One of the things believers must always consider is this—is our worldview consistent with the Biblical faith that we claim to possess? If the answer is no, then our life will display hypocrisy and it will bring a reproach on Christ. III: _____ by Our _____: v8

A person's worldview is formed in many ways but according to verse 8, the Biblical worldview, which is to be after Christ, will face many challenges from culture.

A. the _____ of challenges

The source of any worldview that challenges a Biblical worldview is always man and his own wisdom.

B. the _____ of challenges
spoil = to lead away / to seduce

Whether it's your own heart attempting to lead you away, the wisdom of college professor, the media, or even a family member or friend, God says ... beware! Take heed that you are NOT led astray and seduced.

C. the _____ used by culture

While there are many ways culture attacks a Biblical worldview, the Apostle Paul highlights three.

- through philosophy and vain deceit
- after the tradition of men
- after the rudiments of the world

From the beginning of time men have challenged and attempted to replace God's way, God's Word, and God's thinking with their own knowledge, wisdom and ideas. But Christians are directed by the Word of God to see through those challenges and to not be deceived.
